

Report of SAYFC visit to Chile by Lucy Mitchell

We are always pleased to read about the outcomes of Douglas Bomford Trust sponsorship and Lucy Mitchell's comprehensive report of her #tripofalifetime with the Scottish Association of Young Farmers Clubs (SAYFC) posted on our website is a colourful travelogue and an interesting read.

Lucy is the Events and Engagement Manager at The James Hutton Institute and National Chair of the Scottish Association of Young Farmers Clubs. She posted on LinkedIn:

“An amazing two weeks on the Scottish Association of Young Farmers Clubs Agri and Rural Affairs study tour to Chile! Visiting agricultural businesses and farms and meeting key players within the Chilean agricultural industry has taught us a great deal and has left us all feeling inspired to achieve more!

Thank you to the Douglas Bomford Trust for supporting me to attend this study tour and for the Scottish Association of Young Farmers Clubs for arranging the programme.”

To learn more about what we got up to, see our report on the SAYFC website at: <https://www.sayfc.org/chile-blog/> .”

Lucy added: “The trip was AMAZING and has had so many benefits, including some of the group returning to the UK with new ideas on how to operate. I have given two presentations to young farmers about the trip and highlighted the support from the Douglas Bomford Trust.”

See if you are eligible to apply for a Douglas Bomford Trust Travel Award at: <https://www.dbt.org.uk/apply>